Personal

St. Louis has wonderful places to enjoy gardening, horseback riding, hiking, musical and artistic events, sports, and eating - things Leslie adores! Leslie's home is in west St. Louis County. Her husband, Tom, recently retired from Deaconess Foundation, located in downtown St. Louis. Leslie and Tom have three grown children and two granddaughters.

Through Tom's work, the Tupper family has come to know numerous social service organizations dedicated to improving the health and well-being of metropolitan area children. Leslie and Tom invest their time and money in the St. Louis community through these organizations as well as other groups supporting the arts and the environment.
